MOTION FOR DISCLOSURE OF
STATEMENTS AND OTHER EVIDENCE

COMES NOW, the Defendant, Robert Jordan Fields, through his attorneys, The Bell Law Firm, P.A., and James L. Bell, and files this Motion for Disclosure of Evidence, pursuant to Rule 5 of the South Carolina Rules of Criminal Procedure, as follows:

Disclosure of Evidence by the Prosecution and Information Subject to Disclosure:

(A) Statement of Defendant. The Defendant requests the prosecution to furnish and permit the defendant to inspect and copy or photograph:

(1) Any relevant written or recorded statements made by the Defendant, or copies thereof, within the possession, custody or control of the prosecution, the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known, to the attorney for the prosecution; and

(2) The substance of any oral statement which the prosecution intends to offer in evidence at the trial made by the defendant whether before or after arrest in response to interrogation by any person then known to the defendant to be a prosecution agent.

(B) Defendant's Prior Record. The Defendant requests the prosecution to furnish to the Defendant such copy of his prior criminal record, if any, as is within the possession, custody, or control of the prosecution, the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known, to the attorney for the prosecution.

(C) Witnesses' Prior Record. The Defendant requests the prosecution to furnish to the Defendant such copy of the criminal record of any witness to be called by the prosecution, if any, as is within the possession, custody, or control of the prosecution, the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known, to the attorney for the prosecution.

Respectfully submitted,
